

Community Disposal Day and Drug Drop Off

Saturday, April 10, 2010
9 a.m. until 12 noon

Ohio University Lancaster Campus
north parking lot

- Bring your confidential documents to be shredded (3 box limit per vehicle) Free!
- Recycle durable medical equipment*
- Recycle telephone books
- Recycle batteries
- Drop off unused or outdated prescription medication

  please see details on reverse*

Community Disposal Day and Drug Drop Off Saturday, April 10, 2010 | 9 a.m. until 12 noon

OHIO
UNIVERSITY

Lancaster Campus

1570 Granville Pike, Lancaster OH

740.654.6711 or 888.446.4468

www.lancaster.ohiou.edu

www.fairfieldrecycles.org

* durable medical equipment includes walking and bath safety aids, ramps, wheelchairs and more  prescription pills, capsules, liquids, creams, gels, ointments, patches, suppositories, powders, syringes and IVs. Please do not bring inhalers or aerosols. Black out the name on the prescription label. If you discover medication and are not sure of the origin, you may dispose of it, no questions asked.

Special thanks to these Disposal Day partners...

Fairfield County Community Action and Recycling

Fairfield County Prosecutor's Office

Fairfield Federal Savings and Loan

Fairfield Medical Center

Interim Healthcare

Lancaster Police Department

"Prevention Works" for Drug-free Fairfield County

Toxco Inc.

WLOH

Ohio University Lancaster Campus