

PROJECT SUMMARY

Project Name:	GRE-42, Columbus Street over Tributary of the Hocking River Bridge Replacement (at Pershing Dr.)
Project Description:	This project replaces the existing bridge with a four-sided pre-cast structure on the same grade and alignment.
Project Purpose:	Replace a deteriorated bridge
Project Limits:	Berwick Dr. to Pershing Dr. (access to residences will be maintained from northwest only)
Project Schedule:	Start: May 23, 2011 Completion: July 29, 2011 NOTE: Construction is a weather dependent activity and excessive inclement weather conditions will delay the above schedule.
Project Update:	AT&T is currently clearing its lines to allow bridge work to begin.
Traffic Control:	All traffic will be prohibited from the project area. A detour will be posted.
Sponsor Agency:	Fairfield County Engineer's Office (go to www.fceo.org)
Construction Cost:	$189, 884.76 (low bid)
Funding:	County Bridge Culvert and Road Levy fund.
Project Engineering:	Design: Lockwood Lanier Mathias & Noland, Lancaster, Ohio R/W & Easements: Utility easements for utility locations have been acquired. Inspection: Fairfield County Engineer's Office
Contractor:	Rock River Construction, Lancaster, Ohio 43130
City Contact:	This is NOT a City Contract – this is a Fairfield County Engineer's Office project (go to www.fceo.org).